Papa Johns Launches “Pizza Miles,” Reimbursing Customers for Gas When They Drive for Carryout

Instead of letting the cost of getting from point A to pizza stand in the way of a craving, Papa Johns is giving customers a reason to make the trip worth it.

“If you’re choosing carryout, we’re choosing to reward you for it,” said Lyndsie Adams, Vice President of Customer Marketing and Media at Papa Johns. “Pizza Miles gives our most loyal Papa Rewards members real value back in Papa Dough, simply for picking up the pizza they already love.”

How Pizza Miles Works

From Friday, April 3 through Sunday, April 5, Papa Rewards members who opt in to Pizza Miles will receive $4 in Papa Dough after placing a qualifying carryout order of $10 or more through the Papa Johns app or website.

Papa Dough is valid for 14 days and can be redeemed on future orders through the Papa Johns app—giving fans an easy way to turn today’s drive into tomorrow’s value.

No math. No hassle. Just dough back for driving to get your dough.

To start earning Papa Dough for the drive, visit papajohns.com or download the Papa Johns app to join Papa Rewards.

About Papa Johns

Papa John’s International, Inc. (Nasdaq: PZZA) opened its doors in 1984 with one goal in mind: BETTER INGREDIENTS. BETTER PIZZA.® Papa Johns believes that using high-quality ingredients leads to superior quality pizzas. Its original dough is made of only six ingredients and is fresh, never frozen. Papa Johns tops its pizzas with real cheese made from mozzarella, pizza sauce made with vine-ripened tomatoes that go from vine to can in the same day and meat free of fillers. It was the first national pizza delivery chain to announce the removal of artificial flavors and synthetic colors from its entire food menu. Papa Johns is co-headquartered in Atlanta, Ga. and Louisville, Ky. and is the world's third-largest pizza delivery company with more than 6,000 restaurants in approximately 50 countries and territories. For more information about the Company or to order pizza online, visit www.papajohns.com or download the Papa Johns mobile app for iOS or Android.
