Funding will support families and communities across Canada

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 23, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Papa John's Canada announced the company raised more than $40 thousand through sales of the Shaq-a-Roni pizza for Boys & Girls Clubs of Canada to help address challenges posed by COVID-19 for kids and families, and to drive leadership development programs for kids in local communities.

"Thanks to the generosity of each customer who ordered a Shaq-a-Roni pizza and the support of our franchisees and team members, we raised more than $40 thousand to support a cause very close to my heart," said Shaquille O'Neal, Papa John's Board Member and franchise owner.

One dollar from every Shaq-a-Roni sold between June 29 and August 23 was donated to Boys & Girls Clubs of Canada.

"The money raised through the Shaq-a-Roni is going to incredible organizations that support causes like COVID-19 relief and the fight against racial injustice," said Shaquille O'Neal. "As a Boys & Girls Clubs alum, I know the impact Papa John's continued support is having on these kids and their families' lives."

"Papa John's has been fortunate during the pandemic, as we have been able to deliver food to people who want or need to stay at home. It's our privilege to both feed our communities and give back during these challenging times," said Rob Lynch, president and CEO of Papa John's. "Last year we launched The Papa John's Foundation for Building Community, aligned with our company values of People First, Do the Right Thing and Everyone Belongs. Especially in these times of need, we're proud to continue our work towards equality, fairness, respect and opportunity for all through our ongoing partnerships like Boys & Girls Clubs."

"It has been incredible to see the enthusiasm of Shaq, the Papa John's Canada corporate team, and local franchisees as they bring this partnership north of the border," said Owen Charters, President & CEO, Boys & Girls Clubs of Canada. "Our counterparts at Boys & Girls Clubs of America have been working with Shaq and Papa John's for quite a while, so working with us was a natural fit—and more important than ever during the COVID-19 pandemic. We are grateful for their generous donations and advocacy for our Clubs, and we look forward to building this partnership here in Canada."

The Shaq-a-Roni, offered for a limited time, is an extra-large pizza made with Papa John's fresh, never-frozen six ingredient dough, topped with extra cheese and extra pepperoni, then cut into Papa John's largest slice size to-date.
