Oyler, who most recently served as Vice President and Senior Counsel, has been with Papa John's for more than 13 years serving in a variety of leadership roles, including leading the Human Resources department for most of 2009.

"Caroline is an extremely talented lawyer with a great deal of experience, and we are pleased to have her lead our legal function," said Tony Thompson, Papa John's Executive Vice President, COO and President, PJ Food Service. "With two decades of experience in private practice and the restaurant industry, Caroline is the right person to lead our legal affairs during this time of rapid company growth."

Prior to joining Papa John's, Oyler was a senior attorney at the regional law firm of Wyatt, Tarrant & Combs in Louisville, Ky., where she counseled clients on all aspects of labor and employment law, and litigated employment and commercial cases in federal and state courts throughout the country.

Headquartered in Louisville, Kentucky, Papa John's International, Inc. (NASDAQ: PZZA) is the world's third largest pizza company. For 11 of the past 13 years, consumers have rated Papa John's No. 1 in customer satisfaction among all national pizza chains in the American Customer Satisfaction Index (ACSI).
