Papa John's Announces Promotion of Glenn West to Senior Vice President, Information Services and eCommerce

LOUISVILLE, Ky.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--July 31, 2006--Papa John's International, Inc. (NASDAQ: PZZA) today announced the promotion of Glenn West to senior vice president, information services and eCommerce.

West joined Papa John's in 2005 as vice president, information services and eCommerce, responsible for all field and corporate information services throughout the Papa John's domestic and international systems. In his new position, West will lead all Papa John's technology functions, including field systems support, business systems, technology operations, online ordering and customer support and applications development.

West has more than 25 years of restaurant systems experience, including serving as vice president of information technology services with Yorkshire Global Restaurants (Long John Silver's) from 1996 through 2003.

"Glenn has done an excellent job leading technology for the Papa John's system," commented Papa John's chief financial officer, David Flanery. "Glenn understands the role of technology in helping the Papa John's system deliver excellent customer service and on our brand promise of 'Better Ingredients, Better Pizza.'"

Headquartered in Louisville, Kentucky, Papa John's is the world's third largest pizza company. For seven years running, consumers have rated Papa John's no. 1 in customer satisfaction among all national QSR chains in the highly regarded American Customer Satisfaction Index (ACSI).
